SPEAKER

Dr Soh Chee Seng is Technical Consultant on trade finance issues for the Association of Banks in Singapore, Non-Exclusive External Trade Finance Adviser of a number of banks in Asia Pacific and Associate Director of Institute of International Banking Law & Practice, USA.

Dr Soh is a member of the Panel of Experts, ICC Rules for Documentary Credit Dispute Resolution Expertise (DOCDEX). He served as a member of the UCP600 Drafting Group commissioned by the ICC Banking Commission to revise UCP500 and member of the task force on international standard banking practice for documentary credits (ISBP).

Dr Soh has conducted workshops on trade finance issues to numerous ICC national committees and financial institutions in Southeast Asia. He has been invited by the Supreme People's Court of China, Shanghai High People's Court and Tianjin High People's Court to conduct seminars on ISBP for the judges in China. He has also been invited as an expert witness on many LC cases in China, Hong Kong, Malaysia, Singapore and South Korea.

Dr Soh received his Ph.D. in International Law from the China University of Political Science and Law in 2011 and his first degree, Bachelor of Commerce, major in Economics, from Nanyang University, Singapore, in 1973.
